

The California EC Network will be meeting on Wednesday, May 23, 2007, 10 am-2 pm, to discuss strategies to increase EC access and information among young women and low-income women. We look forward to hearing about current member organizations' efforts to broaden EC access to underserved populations and to thinking strategically about opportunities to collaborate. Please RSVP by May 11 to Ingrid Dries-Daffner at iddaffner@phi.org.

We anticipate that some EC Network members are planning to attend the Los Angeles County Office of Women's Health Women's Health Policy Summit the following day on May 24 at the Sheraton Los Angeles Downtown. To facilitate your participation in both meetings, we have provided directions (see below) from the California Family Health Council to the Sheraton Los Angeles Downtown. The venues are just a few miles apart, so it should be fairly easy to make hotel accommodations convenient to both locations. We have also provided travel information from the Los Angeles Airport, for those of you who may be joining us for just the day (most cab drivers should know the way).
